

Border County Notes

From Our Exchanges

SALINE

The engagement of Miss Sade Tull of Carrollton to J. L. Burus was announced in Carrollton last Sunday.

E. H. Gilliam, 98 years old died at the home of his son-in-law in Marshall last Monday. Death was due to the infirmities of age.

The bottom near Arrow Rock was under water last week and some of the farmers had trouble getting their cattle to high land. Some had secured the assistance of the Glasgow ferryboat.

Marriages:—Jake E. Lewellen and Nettie A. Cook both of Slater. Harry Stone of Lexington and Ola Slayer of Higginsville. G. L. Naron and Ida May Hopkins both of Marshall. Willie Overley and Maud Vesser both of Marshall. Elbert Martin and Georgia Shields both of Sweet Springs.

Last Sunday afternoon the large barn on the farm of Theodore Staub, ten miles north-west of Marshall was burned to the ground. 900 bushels of corn, 200 bushels of shelled oats, 15 tons of baled hay, several sets of harness were lost. The building was insured for $600. No insurance on the contents. The origin of the fire is unknown.

LINN

Last Saturday was the forty-fifth anniversary of the Brookfield Gazette.

Col. T. J. Martin of Keytesville was transacting business in Linneus yesterday. — Bulletin

Marriages:—Hugh St. John and Argie Post Wheeler, both of Brookfield. John Donovan and Katherin O'Conner, both of Marceline. R. H. Hammack and Coily B. Sellars both of Bucklin. Lee Johnson and Maud Allen both of Marceline.

Edward Stephens died at the home of his daughter Mrs. Frank Garrity in Brookfield last Thursday at the age of 82 years.

Last week Geo. Glenn, who lives 4 miles southwest of Linneus, underwent an operation for appendicitis at Laclede. Dr. Foster Burk performed the operation, assisted by his father Dr. J. L. Burk and Drs. Pratt of Brookfield and Hardy of Sumner. The operation was entirely successful and Mr. Glenn is rapidly improving.

The four "Hikers" of Brookfield who are going on a tour to the West arrived in St. Joseph ahead of schedule time last Thursday. The boys wrote to friends in Brookfield and said they were met at most every town by the Elks, and have had good sales of their souvenir cards which they depend on paying their way.

Early Sunday morning the handsome residence of M. A. Bumgarner of Purdin was destroyed by fire which is supposed to have caught from the flue. By hard work most of the furniture was saved but a considerable amount of bedding and clothing in the upper story was destroyed. The loss is estimated at about $2,500.

LIVINGSTON

Marriages:—John Grozinger and Luella Cosebaum, both of Braymer. Roy Poll and May Dayton, both of Chillicothe.

At a meeting of the Board of Education last Tuesday night A. R. Coburn, the popular and highly and capable superintendent of the Chillicothe Public Schools, was re-elected for another year.

The Chillicothe Tribune is now owned by Jno. P. Sailor and Mal D. McHolland, with the exception of one share owned by Paul D. Kitt who is V. P. of the company. G. T. Sailor closed out his interest and will meet his wife in Mexico.

James H. Toppas, 76 years old, was stricken with heart failure at the residence of his brother, Major J. W. Toppas in Chillicothe last Sunday and died almost without warning.

The four strangers taken into custody last Saturday a week ago suspected of being implicated in the burglary of the general store at Ludlow and placed in the Livingston county jail were released last Saturday after being questioned by the officers.

Dollar Bill Jones, charged with carrying concealed weapons while in an intoxicated condition, in Chillicothe was arranged before Judge Davis and given a sentence of one year in the county jail last Wednesday.

The farmers of Livingston county are busy putting in their oats, some began work last Friday and Saturday and many worked over Sabbath day. Wheat never looked better and the ground is in splendid condition for spring plowing.

The commencement exercises of the Chillicothe High School will be held at the Majestic Theater on the evening of June 3. There will be fifty-one graduates in the class of 1912. Of that number 29 are girls, and 22 are boys, this is said to be the largest number of male graduates in several years.

Attorney L. A. Martin of Chillicothe was in Kansas City last Saturday where he argued a motion before the Federal Court to have his case against the Chillicothe Water Company sent back to the Circuit court of Livingston county. This is the suit in which the city is resisting payment of some $26,000 in hydrant rentals which the company claims is due from the municipality.

Thirteen pairs of pants and three coats, all new goods were found in the W. A. Peairs' ice house last Monday afternoon by Al Leach an employee of Mr. Peairs near Cameron. Officers at Chillicothe were notified and it was soon learned that the goods were stolen from a car at Chillicothe last Saturday night. Burlington detectives had found where two suits had been discarded, the robbers exchanging them for new clothing they had stolen. Marshal David occupied the ice house a goodly portion of the night thinking the robbers would return for the goods.

CARROLL

Geo. Branch was exhibiting an ear of corn at Carrollton last Monday that is 48 years old. It is of the Yellow Dent variety and is as good now as it ever was.

Marriages:—W. E. Crouch and Florence Chinn of Hale. S. E. Crispin and Cora Johnson, both of Bosworth. Claude L. Cochran and Millie Lightfoot, both of Wakenda.

A smokehouse on the farm of W. W. Hiatt near DeWitt and a quantity of meat which was being smoked in it was destroyed by fire last Friday. The meat was the property of A. Bahr who lives on the farm and was valued at $100 with $75 insurance.

The one-story four room frame dwelling of J. A. Williams, editor of the Herald, in the north part of DeWitt was burned at one o'clock last Monday afternoon. The house valued at $500 to $600 was a total loss with $300 insurance. Most of the house hold goods were saved. The cause of the fire is not known but it started between the roof and ceiling of a small shed room attached to the house.

Attorneys John Crawford and F. E. Atwood of Carrollton were in Hale last Wednesday taking deposition of W. S. Deardorff in the case of Earl Ogle vs. G. E. Edwards and W. S. Deardorff. In January Glen Edwards purchased two horses from Mr. Ogle who lives near Norborne and gave a check for $251 for them. Mr. Ogle did not deposit the check for some weeks and when he did it was discovered that Glen Edwards had no funds in the bank.

At the session of the circuit court in Carrollton last Monday three men were sent to the penitentiary. Ed Magrew, col., who was recently released from the penitentiary, entered a plea of guilty to the charge of feloniously assaulting his wife by trying to shoot her and was sentenced to the pen for eight years. Alva Wooden, the young man who forgot to return a team of horses to the Norborne livery stable, entered a plea of guilty to forging checks and was sent to the pen for five years. John Matthews, col., charged with carrying concealed weapons entered a plea of guilty and was sentenced to fifty-five years in the pen. They were all sent by Judge Trimble.

RANDOLPH

Engineer Jack Vroman with headquarters at Moberly underwent an operation at the Wabash hospital last Monday for appendicitis.

Phillip Blume of Moberly happened to a very serious accident last Monday while in a cherry tree in his yard cutting some limbs. His foot slipped and he fell, catching his right arm between two limbs. The skin and muscles were torn nearly to the bone.

There were six new patients admitted to the Woodland hospital last Monday, as follows: Mrs. Alva Lamb, Salisbury; Hobart Whitmire, Huntsville; Mrs. L. R. McDaniels, Huntsville; Mrs. Isaac Grapes, Salisbury and Miss Edna Kaufman and F. S. Race of Moberly.

Marriages:—Mose Martin and Audry Stephens, both of Moberly. James Williams of Elliott and Bertha Robins of Moberly. Ben Dixon and Mamie Wilson both of Moberly. John A. David and Mythie Perman both of Moberly.

A deal was closed last Saturday whereby Mike Barton, one of the popular shoe salesmen at Levy's store in Moberly bought a half interest in the grocery store and meat market owned by Frank Overberg of that city. Mr. Barton resigned his position at Levy's to give all his attention to his new enterprise.

Guy E. Witten, who with his mother, Mrs. Laura Witten resided in Moberly was found dead in his room at the family residence last Saturday morning by his mother. Mrs. Witten had been up town shopping and on her return found his lifeless body. Guy Witten is survived by his mother and one brother. He was 20 years of age.

Huts Crumpley who was indicted by the last grand jury, and in an argument with the prosecuting attorney in which he called the latter a liar was knocked down by the prosecutor. Later Crumpley was released on a $500 bond, furnished by his attorneys Whitecotton and Wright. He skipped out, however, before his case came to trial. Since that time nothing has been heard of him until Yates' residents informed Mr. Murrell he was back at home. Sheriff Huston has a warrant for his arrest and he will have to answer to the charge on which he was indicted by the grand jury.

Last Wednesday night George Hazen's store at Moberly was entered. The safe was opened and $18 in money and a watch were taken, and diamonds valued at $1000 were left untouched. When Mr. Hazen returned to the store and discovered his loss he realized that it had not been accomplished in the usual way but was done by some one entering the store with a key and knowing the combination of the safe. The circumstantial evidence pointed to Harvey Grimes and Thursday morning he was arrested.

ed at Huntsville by Marshall Ryals upon the request of Chief of Police Fleming. He was given a preliminary trial and pleaded guilty and was taken to Huntsville jail.

HOWARD

W. H. Yancey of Armstrong has started a new store of groceries at Roanoke.

Mrs. Amos Sunderland died of pneumonia at her home in Burton township last Saturday.

J. F. Mobley of Fayette had the misfortune of losing his seventeen hands jack "Big Bill" last Monday night. The animal was valued at $1,200.

The five room residence of Hill Keeling of Fayette was badly damaged last Monday by fire before it could be extinguished. The fire originated from an overheated stove. The damage is estimated at about $500.

During a conversation among four Fayette citizens while in the furniture store of W. W. Whyte, last Saturday, it developed that the combined ages of the four was 315 years. They were Geo. Carson 85, S. M. Naylor 80, Otho Ashcraft 76 and John McCorkle 74. — Democrat-Leader.

The Dale Hardware and Implement store at Fayette was sold to D. B. Denny of near Armstrong last week. Dale and Robertson the proprietors taking in exchange the Denny farm of 307 acres on the Glasgow and Armstrong road, valued at $27,000 and said to be one of the finest farms in Howard county.

James Gibson of Fayette and son of Sheriff Gibson of Howard county, was arrested last Monday night as he was breaking a window in a clothing store. He began to smash the iron gratings and windows with a crowbar when the fire hose was turned on him. He was forced into submission after a few minutes. Sheriff Gibson was sick in bed in an adjoining room but directed the attack on his son.

Mrs. Lillie Ballew committed suicide at the home of her father, Herbert Crowley, near Richland, north of Fayette last Thursday afternoon by shooting herself in the mouth with a 38-calibre revolver. Mrs. Ballew was the wife of Elmo Ballew from whom she had been separated for about two months. She and her mother were the only ones at home at the time of the suicide. Mrs. Ballew was 22 years old and had been married four years.

Dalton Dots

(TOO LATE FOR LAST WEEK)

Jerome, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Bucksath is sick.

Mrs. Hartman of Brunswick visited friends and relatives in Dalton Friday and Saturday.

Mrs. J. W. Henning and little son, Roy, visited homefolks near Salisbury Friday and Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Steiman returned home Tuesday from their honey-moon trip. They visited friends in Kansas City and Triplett.

Sixty Years the Standard

DR PRICE'S

CREAM BAKING POWDER

A Cream of Tartar Powder Made from Grapes NO ALUM

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Remmert of northeast of town are the proud parents of a big boy, who came to bless their home last week. The parents have named him Theodore Roosevelt in honor of our ex-president. Mother and babe are doing nicely.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of Dr. J. C. Ayer

Eccles Echoes

Mrs. Dona Perry is on the sick list this week.

Miss Hattie Medlin spent Tuesday with her friend, Mrs. Wm. Gallemore.

Rev. Johnson filled his regular appointment at Eccles church Sunday and Sunday night.

John Ford returned home Sunday from Pike county where he has been for the past week.

Misses Gracie Kinzle and Leona Moxley Sundayed with their friends Misses Hattie and Elayne Medlin.

A Sabbath school will be organized at Eccles church next Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. Every body come and help with the good work.

SCOTT'S EMULSION

has helped countless thousands of thin, weak, delicate children—made them strong, plump and robust.

It creates an appetite, aids digestion, fills the veins with rich red blood.

After illness or loss of weight from any cause, it brings strength and flesh quicker than anything else.

ALL DRUGGISTS

13-14

G. N. ELLIOTT

H. B. RICHARDSON

Abstracts, Loans and Insurance

Compiled by Geo. N. Elliott & Co. will be found to contain all the essential matters disclosed by the records, and are always full and complete.

Ours are the oldest and most reliable books in the county. We have the record of each and every town lot and tract of land in the county.

Get our prices before contracting your abstract work.

G. N. ELLIOTT & CO.

Keytesville, Mo.

Office One Door North of courthouse.

General Merchandise!

LADIES' AND GENTS' CLOTHING

Queensware and Notions. A complete line of up-to-date goods. Everything as represented. Produce taken in exchange for merchandise.

J. M. Barton, Dalton, Mo.

LUNG DISEASE

"After four in our family had died of consumption I was taken with a frightful cough and lung trouble, but my life was saved and I gained 87 pounds through using

DR. KING'S NEW DISCOVERY

W. B. Patterson, Wellington, Tex.

CAPITAL STOCK $25,000.

SURPLUS $25,000.

FARMERS BANK OF CHARITON COUNTY

A. S. TAYLOR, President

H. C. MILLER, Cashier

J. C. WALLACE, Vice Pres.

A. F. TAYLOR, Asst. Cash.

Does a General Banking Business. Exchange on all Principal Cities. Pays Interest on Time Certificates.

YOUR ACCOUNT SOLICITED

KEYTESVILLE, (Phone 89) MISSOURI.

MINTER - LAMKIN ABSTRACT CO.

(INCORPORATED.)

Having bought the J. M. Mason & Co. abstract books we are now the owners of two sets of Abstract Books, the combined result of more than 30 years of laborious effort. Besides, we have vast and priceless memoranda and information bearing on land titles. We employ trained, expert abstractors. Our Guarantee goes with all work. Our patronage is founded on merit. Let us have yours.

MINTER-LAMKIN ABSTRACT COMPANY
KEYTESVILLE, MISSOURI.